- Put on your favorite cozy pajamas.
- Leave a little snack and a kind note for Santa.
- Set out a carrot for the reindeer.
- Share one thing you’re grateful for.
- Read a Christmas story together.
- Give someone you love a big hug.
- Snuggle into bed and dream of Christmas magic.

A Very Merry Scavenger Hunt

Look around your home with a grown-up. Can you find them all?

- Something red

- Something that sparkles

- A star

- A cozy blanket

- Something that smells like Christmas

- A favorite holiday decoration

- Something you could give to make someone smile

- A person to share a Christmas hug with

Giggles from the Elf Workshop

Santa says laughter is one of the best gifts.

- What do elves learn at school? The elf-abet!

- What do snowmen eat for breakfast? Frosted flakes!

- What do you call a reindeer with good manners? A deer friend!

- Why did the ornament go to school? To get a little brighter!

- What do you call Santa when he takes a break? Santa Pause!

Make a Kindness Paper Chain

A simple Christmas craft to do with a grown-up.

- Gather paper, crayons, child-safe scissors, and tape.

- Ask a grown-up to help cut the paper into strips.

- Write or draw one act of kindness on each strip.

- Decorate with stars, snowflakes, and Christmas colors.

- Loop the first strip and tape it closed. Thread the next strip through it and repeat.

- Hang your chain somewhere special. Choose one kind act to do together each day.
